RESEARCH USE ONLY ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND DISCLAIMER

Please read, complete and sign before your order is released.

Elite Glow Beauty Bar supplies materials strictly for laboratory, analytical and research purposes. By signing below, the purchaser acknowledges and agrees to the following:

1. The products purchased are sold for research use only. They are not for human or veterinary consumption and are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease.
2. The products are not drugs, foods, dietary supplements, cosmetics or medical devices, and have not been evaluated by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.
3. The purchaser is 21 years of age or older and is purchasing these materials solely for legitimate research purposes.
4. The purchaser will not administer, inject, ingest, inhale or apply these products to any person or animal, and will not resell them for human or veterinary use.
5. Elite Glow Beauty Bar does not provide dosing, administration, injection, treatment or human-use instructions or advice.
6. The purchaser is responsible for handling and storing the materials safely and in line with the documentation for their lot, and for confirming that their purchase and use are lawful where they are located.
7. Opened, reconstituted or tampered products cannot be returned or exchanged.
8. The purchaser accepts full responsibility for the use of the materials after the sale, and releases Elite Glow Beauty Bar from liability arising from any use that is not research use.

I confirm that I am purchasing these materials solely for legitimate research purposes and understand that they are not intended for human or veterinary consumption.
